Jowi Taylor with Six String Nation Guitar Visits
Grande Prairie Public School District

The Grande Prairie Public School District is excited to welcome Jowi Taylor with the Six String Nation Guitar to the Composite High School, October 15, 2015 at 10:00 am. Nicknamed Voyageur, the Six String Nation guitar is frequently on the move to schools, festivals, concerts, conferences, and community events locally, nationally, and sometimes even internationally.

It’s criss-crossed Canada totaling more than 300,000km, visiting places like Dawson City, St. John’s, Calgary, Iqaluit, Thunder Bay, Nauashish and communities large and small in every Province and Territory of Canada from coast to coast to coast. It’s even been welcomed by the Mayors of many communities in Novara Province, Italy as an ambassador of Canada during an international guitar festival in Orta San Giulio.

The Six String Nation guitar was created by award-winning writer and broadcaster Jowi Taylor. Built from 64 pieces of bone, metal, wood, stone and fabric from all around Canada, the guitar was made as a symbol of national unity, to explore Canadian identity, and to connect people from all regions in Canada. Each building block of the guitar holds its own piece of unique Canadian history.

This presentation is a remarkable way to tie our diverse Canadian history with the Alberta Education learning outcomes for social studies, and will be a once in a lifetime opportunity for our students.

We welcome you to join us for this presentation, and to be a part of Canadian history.
