 GRANDE PRAIRIE
CHRISTIAN SCHOOL

School Information

The Grande Prairie Christian School is a Kindergarten to Grade 9 school of choice within the Grande Prairie Public School Division.

- A faith-based alternative program.
- The school provides strong Christian instruction integrated in a diverse selection of academic courses with prayer as a key focus in every class.

We are unreservedly committed to providing Christian education based on Biblical principles while still striving for academic excellence in completing the Alberta Education program of studies.

In addition we offer a strong variety of extra-curricular programs. In athletics we field competitive teams for basketball, volleyball, badminton, cross-country running, soccer and track and field. We are also proud of our band program which has demonstrated excellence in performance.

We work to achieve our motto of "pursuing personal excellence and Christ-like character" in preparing our students for lives spent serving God, and glorifying Him through excellence in their future endeavors.

Christian Program Fees

Once the Pre-screen application has been submitted, you will be contacted by the school to complete the interview process.
